DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The reply filed on 11/01/06 is not fully responsive to the prior Office Action because: the applicant is subsequent presentation of claims for different invention for example a method and system for sending an acquired message includes a preamble and identifier of a requester which is spreaded by orthogonal code and waiting for assigning a Walsh code and timing information before sending the payload information which is spreaded by orthogonal code and the assigned Walsh code by the base station See 37 CFR 1.145. The new invention is similar to the invention, which the examiner is restricted on the first office action, which is mailed on 12/28/04. The applicant does not select this invention. EXTENSIONS OF THIS TIME PERIOD MAY BE GRANTED UNDER 37 CFR 1.136(a).
